Any such sale will not include the Phase II Real Estate, which is not property of the Debtors' estates. entered into) with the Debtors, on or before the Sealed Auction Bid Deadline, an executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors (the “Confidentiality Agreement”). Further, to participate in the diligence process and receive access to due diligence information, a party shall submit to the Debtors or their advisors and the City and its advisors sufficient information, as reasonably determined by the Debtors and the City, to allow the Debtors and the City to determine that the interested party (a) intends to access the Data Room for a purposes consistent with these Bidding Procedures, (b) has the financial wherewithal to consummate the purchase and development of the Project Opportunity, and (c) the experience necessary to manage and develop the Project Opportunity. Each Potential Bidder shall be required to acknowledge that it has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Project Opportunity in conjunction with submitting its Bid.

12. Subject to the provisions of the Order and these Bid Procedures regarding consultation with the Consultation Parties and the City, and the City's rights under the MOU, neither the Debtors nor any of their representatives shall be obligated to furnish any information of any kind whatsoever relating to the Project Opportunity to any person or entity who is not a Potential Bidder and who does not otherwise comply with the participation requirements set forth above.

Unless the Bankruptcy Court orders otherwise, upon application by the Debtors, the Debtors shall not consider any Bids submitted after the conclusion of the Buyer Selection Deadline and any and all such Bids shall be deemed untimely and shall under no circumstances constitute a Qualified Bid.

25. No later than one business day after the Buyer Selection Deadline, the Debtors shall file a notice on the Bankruptcy Court's docket identifying (with specificity) the Successful Bidder for the Project Opportunity (or subset thereof) and any applicable Next-Highest Bidder, the amount of the Successful Bid and the Next-Highest Bid and, if the Successful Bidder or the Next-Highest Bidder is a credit bidder, what portion of the bid is a credit bid and what portion (if any) is cash. If the Successful Bidder or the Next-Highest Bidder is a special purpose entity, the notice shall also identify the entity or entities that are the equity holders, or who otherwise control, the special purpose entity. At the same time, the Debtors shall serve notice of the same on all contract counterparties whose contracts are to be assumed and assigned and to all creditors who have filed an appropriate request for service of notices in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 2002. Simultaneously, Debtors shall also provide notice of motion to sell the Assets to the Successful Bidder.

26. All bidders participating in the Bidding Process and Sealed Bid process will be deemed to have consented to the core jurisdiction and constitutional authority of the Bankruptcy Court and waived any right to jury trial in connection with any disputes relating to the Bidding Process, the Sale, and all agreements entered into in connection with any proposed sale transaction.

VIII. RETURN OF GOOD FAITH DEPOSIT

27. The Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders shall be held in escrow but shall not become property of the Debtors' estates absent further order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors shall retain any Good Faith Deposit submitted by the Successful Bidder. At the closing of a Sale contemplated by a Successful Bid, the applicable Buyer will be entitled to a credit for the amount of its Good Faith Deposit to the extent such a deposit was provided. The Good Faith Deposits of any Next-Highest Bidder shall be retained until three (3) business days after the closing of the Sale. The Good Faith Deposits of any other Qualified Bidders will be returned as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than three (3) business days following the Buyer Selection Deadline.

28. If a Successful Bidder (or, if the Sale is to be closed with a Next-Highest Bidder, then the Next-Highest Bidder) fails to consummate the Sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such bidder, then, subject to the terms of the applicable Qualified Bid Purchase Agreement or any other form of purchase agreement reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors, the Debtors and their estates shall be entitled to retain the Good Faith Deposit of such Buyer (or, if the Sale is to be closed with the Next-Highest Bidder, then such Next-Highest Bidder) as part of the damages resulting to the Debtors and their estates for such breach or failure to perform. As actual damages would be difficult to ascertain in the event of a breach or failure to perform prevents the Buyer from consummating the Sale, Debtors' retention of the Good Faith Deposit represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the damages Debtors would incur as a result of such breach.

IX. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS AND MODIFICATIONS

29. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties and the City, without prejudice to any of the City's approval rights as set forth in the Final DIP Order and MOU, and upon obtaining Court order to make a material modification, reserve the right to modify these Bidding Procedures with respect to extending the deadlines set forth herein, waiving terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to any or all Potential Bidders (including, without limitation, the Bid Requirements), and imposing additional terms and conditions with respect to any or all potential bidders; provided, however, that any such modification of these Bidding Procedures shall not be inconsistent with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures Order (not including these Bidding Procedures) or any other order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in these cases, and shall be disclosed to each Qualified Bidder at or prior to the Buyer Selection Deadline.

X. NEXT-HIGHEST BIDDER

30. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event that a Successful Bidder fails to close a Sale prior to such date as specified in the applicable purchase agreement (or such date as may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors, upon written notice to the Next-Highest Bidder, may designate the applicable Next-Highest Bid as the Successful Bid for the Project Opportunity (or subset thereof), the Next-Highest Bidder will be deemed to be the Buyer for the Project Opportunity, and the Debtors will be authorized, but not directed, to close the Sale to the Next-Highest Bidder subject to the terms of the Next-Highest Bid as approved by further order of the Bankruptcy Court.
